

Today, Rep. Luján presented his National Environmental Research Park bill on the House floor for consideration. Take a look at this video of him discussing the bill: